Pitch deck — Event & Sustaining sponsorship

Why Block 15 — Why Now

Practice → shared language → standards that business, SROs, and government can reference.

- When / where: 15–16 October 2026 · Georgetown University (3700 O St NW) · Washington, D.C. · Hybrid · same week as DC Fintech Week
- Working format: published timetable — Room A/B + Agent Hack (Day 1) + Reception — Cyber · IKP · FASE · Agentic AI
- Standards pathway: WG drafts → Block approval → reference points for industry, SROs (e.g. JVCEA), and public authorities
  ISO/TC 307 Category A (ISF → ISO PAS); NIST-facing PQC dialogue; IETF-style practice; FATF VACG inputs.
- Priority sessions this Block: PQC migration · Industrial Design of Digital Assets · AML / Forensics Common Taxonomy
  Plus Security AI Agent, ST/PP, and cyber supply-chain governance. Autumn: GDC (Sep) → Block 15 (DC) → SSR (Dec).

- Exchanges, banks, fintech operators
- Auditors, ISACs, security researchers
- Academia & standards participants

What BGIN provides

Blockchain Governance Initiative Network

From Permissionless Collaborative Works to Agreed Standards for Stakeholders

What Sponsors Buy

Not inventory for sale — three outcomes. The legitimacy comes from neutral, transparent consensus, not from a single vendor or authority declaring a document.

Access	Influence	Association
Tickets into the room; introductions to WG chairs; networking reception presence.	Tier 1 workshop slot (Day 1 Industry Sessions) / session co-design under BGIN neutrality rules; early consolidated meeting report.	Visible support for outputs that carry multi-stakeholder legitimacy — usable by business, SROs, and government — unlike one-sided "self-issued" papers.

🔗 Why it matters: Because the process is neutral and transparent, BGIN documents can be referenced with credibility that unilateral papers lack.
